of my sentiments by the proclamation Yesterday the Mameluks were for the or made prisoners, and I am in pursui survive. Send over to this bank what and a deputation to announce your s bread, meat, straw, and forage collected be without uneasiness, for no one coulc than I.

26th, Cairo:

No news from France since our depa

(To Joseph.) Be kind to my wife. G casionally. I am asking Louis to give I wish Desiree all happiness if she m* She deserves it. I embrace your wife $ sending a handsome shawl to Julie. I unfaithful to her; she is an excellent T happy.

28th. Perree should be sent out wi having on board: a company of acton let; three or four marionette showme a hundred or so French women; the are employed here; 20 surgeons, 30 cl cians.

I will colonize this country. I am and shall then be thirty-five; that's i gives me long enough, if all goes well, t

31st. Severity is needed to govern tl five or six heads to be sliced off every of Cairo. Up till now we have had to fo